

Health Care Plan Update: Expanded “Open Access Networks”

Great News! The FCIS Health Care Plan has just gone through the first annual renewal process, and the increase for the 2008-09 year is only 4%, significantly less than the double-digit rates experienced by other medical plans. In addition to the exceptional rate, the plan now offers an Open Access HMO, which allows our members to see their network Doctors without a referral. The PPO options use the largest network the carrier has to offer.

Thank you to the schools that have joined and celebrated the recent good news about their low renewal premiums.

What are you waiting for? Consider taking advantage of this rare opportunity to have more control over your school's health insurance. You'll benefit from group purchasing that maintains lower premiums, provides rate stability, and guarantees coverage. And the flexibility of the many plan options means that individuals can select what's best for them and their families.

Support your Association colleagues by banding together to save money on your insurance premiums with a health care plan that is comprehensive and customized for private-independent schools in Florida.
