

Saint Stephen's Episcopal School seeks a full time classroom teacher within the Lower Division for the 2021/2022 school year. Candidates should have attained a degree in Early Childhood or Elementary Education, have five years of classroom experience, along with a master's degree or beyond is preferred. Candidates should be able to create developmentally appropriate curricula, establish a nurturing and engaging classroom environment for all students, and work collaboratively with colleagues and families. An understanding of multi-sensory, differentiated instructional practices is essential. All faculty and staff are expected to possess excellent interpersonal and communication skills and to carry out the Saint Stephen's Promise that every child will be known and every child will be valued.

- Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood, Elementary Education or another relevant field, with a Master's degree, preferred
- 5 years of experience as a classroom teacher

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to the Lower School Director Mrs. Jennifer Helbing at jhelbing@saintstephens.org
