

Elementary School Teacher, Beaches Campus

Episcopal School of Jacksonville's approach to our balanced education (academics, fine arts, athletics and spiritual development) is sustained by the expectation of excellence in all areas of campus life. The school works to develop "leaders and doers of good," as was stated by its Founders in 1966. The school is located on three campuses and serves students age one through grade 12. Episcopal is a caring community with faculty who are outstanding in their field and dedicated to a student-centered approach to education. Our students develop creative talents, discover their passions, and deepen their faith and commitment to serving others while engaging in the ever-evolving process of lifelong learning.

Job Description:

The Episcopal School of Jacksonville is seeking applications for a full-time, Elementary school teaching position on the Beaches campus, beginning in August 2021. A full-time faculty member should feel comfortable teaching any of the grades K-5. Additional duties may include, but are not limited to, supervising community service, or sponsoring a club. Faculty are also responsible for communicating with parents as needed and through conferences and comments at various points during the year.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in elementary education from a four-year college or university, or post-graduate work in subject matter or education; advanced degree preferred.
- Teaching experience is preferred, but we will consider candidates new to teaching.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Demonstrate classroom management skills with a focus on student-centered learning.
- Demonstrate excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Demonstrate proficiency with educational software for the purposes of online teaching.
- Demonstrate the ability to work cooperatively with faculty, students and parents.

Episcopal is committed to a school culture that is safe and positive for all its members. We work intentionally to create a community composed of people who respect and support each other. We recognize the value of diversity, and we actively seek to welcome and include under-represented groups. Episcopal strongly supports professional development and training opportunities for faculty and staff, ensuring that best practices and innovative, learner-centered teaching methods are continually incorporated into our pedagogy. The academic environment is achievement-oriented with a standard of excellence. The school's faculty displays outstanding academic backgrounds, exceptional character, and dedication to our approximately 1,200 students from age one through Grade 2 across three campuses. Episcopal does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, religion, race, color, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability in its hiring and employment practices. The above information is not a completely comprehensive inventory of all duties, responsibilities, or qualifications required of employees assigned to this job.