

Berkeley Teaching Fellows Program

Founded in 1960, Berkeley Preparatory School is a co-educational, Episcopal affiliated, independent, college preparatory school with a current enrollment of 1,380 students in grades Pre-K through 12.

At Berkeley, we seek to educate the whole child by nurturing students' intellectual, emotional, spiritual and physical development so they may attain their highest potential. We are also committed to providing an inclusive and diverse learning environment that encourages values and recognizes each student as a unique individual. Berkeley is located on a beautiful and well-equipped 86-acre campus, consisting of 29 state-of-the-art buildings. Our proud mascot is the Buccaneer. Graduates are well-rounded individuals who have learned the core values of discipline, diligence and integrity and excelled in the academic, co-curricular and character realms.

Berkeley Teaching Fellows Program

Through the Berkeley Teaching Fellows Program, recent college graduates have the opportunity to work side-by-side with a teaching professional in a high-performing environment and gain skills that translate into a successful career in education. We seek candidates who will be vibrant, contributing members of our community, and who are willing to learn and grow under the guidance of an experienced teacher/mentor.

The Berkeley Teaching Fellows Program is a competitive, paid fellowship that requires a two-year commitment. The application process is open to recent college graduates, and all academic majors are eligible. Placement in Lower Division for the 2021-2022 school year would be in grade 2.

Year One: Mentor under master teachers, participate in co-curricular program

Summer: Teach in the Summer of Excellence program

Year Two: Based on performance in Year One, mentorship could include opportunities to co-teach, participate in co-curricular program

Compensation and Benefits

This is a full-time, year-round position. The compensation package will include healthcare, free housing, both breakfast and lunch on school days, and a competitive salary.
