

Jumping From The Plane without a Parachute

This exciting session will offer an update on critical school and employment law trends and equip school administrators with practical tools to best ensure ongoing compliance. Topics will include: considering perpetual enrollment contracts, addressing social media concerns, integrating and managing issues of sexual orientation and gender identity, and updating student and faculty handbooks. After answering more than two hundred thousand school and employment law questions over the past twenty years, Bill will share some of the most unique and challenging fact patterns that his clients have posed. In his normal participative style, Bill will challenge the audience to successfully navigate these demanding scenarios and avoid similar mistakes in the future. Come prepared to laugh, think, and maybe even cry!

Learning Objectives:

Participants will receive an update on critical school and employment law trends and will be supplied with tools to best ensure compliance.

William T. Krizner, Esq. President of The Krizner Group

William T. Krizner, Esq., is President of The Krizner Group, a full service law firm that concentrates its practice in assisting organizations both before and after disputes arise. The Firm's preventative services division aids clients in implementing policies and procedures that will help avoid costly lawsuits and other organizational problems before they occur. Mr. Krizner's background includes extensive experience in client counseling, employment law litigation, and governmental investigations. He founded The Krizner Group after working for the national employment firm of Fisher & Phillips, LLP and then leading the employment law division for Collins & Truett.

Mr. Krizner has published dozens of articles relating to various employment law topics; including hiring, proper termination procedures, employee monitoring, and the dangers imposed by the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Family Medical Leave Act. Mr. Krizner also regularly provides speaking engagements for state and national associations on varying employment law topics. He personally represents more than a thousand clients mainly in Florida, California, South Carolina, Maryland, Georgia and Pennsylvania, including organizations from nearly every major industry and many of the largest organizations in the Tallahassee area. The Firm's clients employ more than two hundred thousand employees.

Mr. Krizner is admitted to the Florida Bar, the United States District Court in the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts.
